

6516209375.txt

PLease reject the NAB's petition 04-160. Those of us that travel have a great need for this product. They are offer nothing any different than satellite TV offers.

This is a high quality, much needed answer to rural, fading radio station signals encountered when long hours are spent on the road.

Is it for everyone? NO. However, it is a great blend with my local radio programming. I can' do without either.